QUOTATIONS

Of verse 2: “Mountains were widely held to be the homes of the gods. The exaltation of the mountain of the LORD’s temple/‘house’, the mountain where he lives, typifies therefore a supernatural triumph of the Lord over all gods....The incongruity of a stream flowing upwards to earth’s highest point is intentional; a supernatural magnetism is at work” (Motyer 1993: 54).

“This new era will inaugurate a series of new relationships between (a) God and his dwelling place in Zion, (b) God and the people who come to hear him teach, and (c) God and various warring nations. God will transform the present world by his presence, his teaching, and his just judgment” (Smith 2007: 129).

ISAIAH 2

Verses 1-5 (NIV)

2 This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

<sup>2</sup>In the last days

the mountain of the LORD’s temple will be established
as chief among the mountains;
it will be raised above the hills,
and all nations will stream to it.

<sup>3</sup>Many peoples will come and say,

“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths.”
The law will go out from Zion,
the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations
and will settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.

<sup>5</sup> Come, O house of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the LORD.
